

Market Morning Trouble

- 1 A spice seller accuses a priest of paying with coins vanishing after purchase.
- 2 A runaway mule drags a cart of illegal spell components through crowded stalls.
- 3 A child sells stolen apples, then whispers the thief hides beneath the fountain.
- 4 Two bakers duel with rolling pins over feeding the royal wedding guests.
- 5 A fortune teller screams after seeing the fighter's palm, then locks up.
- 6 Guards seal the square; someone important vanished during the puppet show.
- 7 A fishmonger sells one talking fish begging the party for rescue.
- 8 A masked noble buys every rope, lantern, and shovel before prayers.
- 9 A merchant's scales always balance, even when customers place nothing there.
- 10 A beggar recognizes the party from a wanted poster pasted nearby.
- 11 A flower stall blooms violently whenever anyone lies within ten paces.
- 12 A courier collapses, clutching twelve sealed letters for the same stranger.
