

Borrowed Shadow Mishaps

- 1 A hero's shadow slips free, pointing toward the nearest hidden betrayer.
- 2 Every torch casts the same crowned silhouette, regardless of whoever carries it.
- 3 A merchant offers payment for shadows, claiming daylight taxes are overdue.
- 4 The party's shadows begin arguing about choices their owners never made.
- 5 One shadow wears shackles, dragging unseen chains across silent stone floors.
- 6 A child's shadow hides behind the wizard whenever bells ring nearby.
- 7 At sunset, every shadow points toward a door that does not exist.
- 8 A slain enemy's shadow follows the party, reenacting its final warning.
- 9 The cleric's shadow kneels before an ordinary beggar and refuses movement.
- 10 Joined shadows make rain rise, exposing footprints across nearby plaster ceilings.
- 11 A doorway steals one shadow, then demands a cherished secret for return.
- 12 At dawn, the shadows swap owners, exposing hidden loyalties through gestures.
